British Library Cataloguing

Contents of this book may be freely reproduced in any form, without prior permission.

This book is also available for corporate gifting, promotions and direct marketing at special rates from the Publisher.

Video recording of private events and celebrations of the subject matter not known to public can also be made available to organizations, social groups, media and individuals who are keen to further the understanding of this stigmatized community.

All names and addresses in this book are factual. Where the fear of their guru necessitated it, a few eunuchs requested to withhold their identity. While most photographs are of actual people, a few of them have been used for representational purposes only.

Donations for welfare of eunuchs may be sent by cheque/draft favouring 'Salvation of Oppressed Eunuchs' to 5/1202, NRI Complex, Mumbai 400706, India.

All disputes are subject to Navi Mumbai jurisdiction only.
